

Andy Hartman
AKC/USA World Team Captain

Andy Hartman joined the AKC in May of 2003 as the Agility Manager in the Companion Events department.

He was promoted in September of that year to Manager of Companion Events.

In April 2004, he joined the Internal Consulting Group as a Senior Consultant. Andy became interested in the Internal Consulting Group because of the opportunities it offered. He wanted to learn as much as possible about the AKC, develop his leadership skills and play a role in the future of the organization.

Andy took over as Director of Agility after Sharon Anderson retired in July 2009.

Dog lovers all their lives, Andy and his wife, Cindy, live in Fuquay Varina, North Carolina with their six dogs: Border Collies – Zest (MACH), Fly and Roux; Belgian Tervuren – Taz (AX, AXJ) and Scorch (CH, OA, OAJ, RE); and Hula, the Parson Russell Terrier. On most weekends Andy and Cindy can be found playing with their dogs. They are members of Moore County Kennel Club, Durham Kennel Club, the American Belgian Tervuren Club and the Schipperke Club of America.
