Wave loves to play games, have fun, and learn tricks. She especially loves any opportunity to bark and chase anything that moves, such as balls, frisbees, birds, and other dogs having fun.

Marcy Mantell and Wave have represented the AKC/USA at the World Championships in 2007, 2008, and 2009. In 2008, Wave won an Individual gold medal at the World Championships in Helsinki, Finland. In addition, Wave has been a multiple finalist in both AKC Agility Nationals and USDAA events, as well as at the 2007 European Open in Italy. Wave was also one of the top 5 Shelties at the AKC Invitational in 2009. Currently, Wave is working toward her Utility title and has just started competing in rally.

Marcy holds two degrees in design: one in Interior Design and one in Graphic Design. She also loves photography, which is why you may see her shooting agility and herding trials on any given weekend.

Marcy and Wave contribute much of their agility successes to Power Paws in San Jose, California where they train with their long time trainer and World Team coach, Nancy Gyes.
